

Associate Professor Christos Papazoglou

Panteion University

Guest Lectures

- “The euro area sovereign debt crisis and the economies of SEE”, 5/4/2012

Brief CV

Christos Papazoglou is a senior economist at the Bank of Greece and associate professor, Department of International and European Studies, at Panteion University. His research interests include the fields of international economics and macroeconomics. He has numerous publications in economic journals and collective volumes. During the last decade, his research agenda as well as his basic duties at the Bank of Greece are connected with the study of the economies of Southeastern Europe.